Additional Notes:

This afternoon's sun will give way to clouds later, followed by snow. Snow is expected to reach the area between 2-4:00 am Sunday Morning. The snow will move quickly - exiting the area by 8-10:00am. Snowfall amounts look to be the heaviest in the North region with less amounts expected in the Central and South Regions. West winds will continue into Sunday afternoon. Temperatures for Sunday are not expected to rise above the freezing mark.

We will monitor the event mobilizing as conditions dictate.
